SCARS is a no-kill, non-profit, 501(c)(3) animal rescue organization relying solely on donations from people like you. In order to maintain our non-profit status, a certain amount of our operating costs must come from donations, and this annual news-letter is our only fundraising request. While there are many other worthwhile charities, we believe we occupy a particular niche with our dogs "at large" on 50 securely fenced acres, two ponds with docks, and endless excursions into our living quarters. Visit our web site to donate, read testimonials, watch videos, sponsor, adopt, or just admire the more than 50 dogs who call this place home on any given day.

Thanks to the following institutional donors for their continued support.

"Once you've had a wonderful dog, a life without one is a life diminished"

- Dean Koontz (author)

Dear Friends of SCARS,

Have you ever wondered what our pets would say to us if they could talk? They probably would thank us for years of good food, fun walks, rides in the car, playing with kids and grandkids, and lying near us watching their favorite TV show. But what about the ones who come to us with blank pages in their history book; the ones with no voice; the ones whose history has to be rewritten.

Those are the dogs that end up here for a multitude of reasons including owner surrenders, "unadoptable" transfers from other shelters, strays found half-starved and roaming the streets, and mama dogs turned over to us when they have been removed from abusive homes. It takes days, weeks, months, and sometimes years for them to trust people after they've been betrayed. Some bounce back fast, others evolve slowly. If they could talk, I think they would say, "Our luck has turned. Woo-hoo!!! Now we have a place to get well, to trust, to play and be a dog."

And they would energetically wag their tails for all of you who donate generously to SCARS, volunteer, pass the word to friends, adopt our dogs, and give them a life now filled with promise.

I think they do talk...if we listen.

Thank you for listening, for caring and for "being there" for those with no voice.

Thank you for your support!
